Old Business
Mathew Mendisco, Town Manager, reviewed the Routt County Health COVID-19 Standing Health Order 2020-01 and 2020-02 and the Colorado Executive Orders and how they relate to the Town of Hayden. Routt County enacted two Public Health Orders, one for closing of hotels and one for limiting the gathering of more than five (5). The State of Colorado enacted a Stay at Home Order not allowing gatherings in homes other than family/in house residents. Only essential services and businesses will be operating and travelling outside their home. Residents may move about for essential services. Hayden Police Department went around and visited all businesses and provided copies of the order. The Town of Hayden will comply to the more restrictive State of Colorado Executive Order and the Routt County Standing Health Order and Routt County Public Health Order. Town of Hayden Town Hall is closed to the public as far as walk-ins. Town Hall will communicate with residents, businesses and customers via email and telephone. There will be someone at the office to receive telephone calls and the day and night telephone prompt will provide numbers for all personnel to contact remotely outside the office. We want to continue business as normal as possible. Police department is fully staffed. The Hayden Police Department attending the Emergency Management Meetings since March 9, 2020 and relying on partnerships, response plans and contingency plans. Continue engaging with the public. Councilmembers can continue to be educated with posting on the Town of Hayden and Routt County websites. Councilmember Wuestewald asked how many confirmed in Routt County and the answer at the time of the meeting was ten (10). Moffat County had their first positive this morning. Mathew reviewed the Routt County FAQ's. Hayden Parks shut down for the Stay at Home Order from the State of Colorado. Open space still open. Mathew expressed the Town working on some blogs/talks on Facebook and Councilmembers exempt from the Stay Order due to duties. There will be no utilities shut offs or late fees for the months of March and April. The Town currently works with payment plans and will address with residents on a reasonable payment option.
