Staff & Councilmember Reports
Recreation
Josh Jones, Director Parks and Recreation:

Police
Chief of Police Tuliszewski: Call volumes are constant and uptick (warm weather) in potential violent situations. Deescalate and __. About 30% increase in call for service. Good partnerships have paid off. Plan for graduation ceremony...

Public Works
Frank Case, Public Works Supervisor:

Planning
Mary Alice Page-Allen, Planning and Economic Development Director: Town of Hayden has three (3) substantial applications for review at the June 18th Town Council Meeting; dog kennel, lumber yard and P.U.D.

Administration
Mathew Mendisco, Town Manager: Give more detailed staff update at the next meeting.

Councilmembers: Councilmember Meek asked about what the Town is doing about mosquito spraying? Mathew Mendisco responded it is scheduled for next week. Councilmember Engle asked if we were doing Hayden Clean Up Day. Yes, June 27th. Councilmember Hagins asked about face masks and why it was extended and thinks it is heavy handed for customers.

Staff reports will continue at the end of the meeting.
